OGN Reporter Yura Kadasak sits in the center stage of Nova Yilsi Battle Center arena in Solop Avagar, alongside her is Todum. Todum is a tall, stone guardian. By his side is Rigum, his manager. Rigum is a small alien, green skin and pointy ears. This interview is held recently after the Ophidian Crashdown Tourney.

Yura: Thank you for coming down to this interview, Todum.

Todum: My name Todum!

Yura: Yes, thank you. Let's start off with what you did before you joined Ophidian, but hold your answer just for a moment as we're entering a brief commercial break....

Todum: Fight to win!

Yura: Yes, good advice. What made you decide to join Ophidian? Why are you here?

Todum: Win to fight!

Rigum: What he means is, he isn't thinking short term. Yes, he's in a fight to win it, but he's here to win it all. A win means he fights another day.

Yura: Who is the toughest challenger in the coming fights?

Todum: Throw spike face!

Rigum: What he means is, there are many difficult fighters, and he respects that. He has seen how many are stronger in close combat. He is focusing on ranged attacks, a strategy he has worked on for some time.

Yura: What are you competing for? What do you hope to walk away with when this is done?

Todum: The Stranger!

Rigum: He is still answering the previous question, the toughest challenger. Of course, defeating him in battle is what he hopes to accomplish.

Yura: What alliances have you made so far? Who will you team with?

Todum: You are stupid!

Rigum: That wasn't meant for you, or to his team. What he means is, it would be stupid not to team up. As great a champion as he is, it is the team and not the individual that excels.

Todum: Learn cards! Do not talk by self!

Rigum: What he means is...

(Yura restrains her laughter at Todum's stupidity.)

Yura: I think we've heard enough. And that's all for tonight, ladies and gentlebeigns.

Todum: Here comes Yura! Do not kill yet!

Yura: What?

(Todum leaves the room waiving to the fans and as the camera was focusing him leaving the arena, he shouts: Repeat my words!)
